

THE KIRK KONNECTION

Editor: Carolyn Marnon

May 2017

Do you ever judge?

It shames this pastor to say and admit it, but I must be candid and forthright: I do.

I wish I didn't. And I don't ever set out to, but when people fail to do things the way I think they should do them, I take issue with it. It's quite likely that most of the time folks won't notice it, but on the inside I'm irritated...annoyed...agitated...rolling my eyes.

I just returned from a vacation to Milwaukee. On the way to the city – and on the way home – I was surrounded by people who either blatantly or out of complete ignorance drove with no regard whatsoever for traffic law. Worse, these drivers were often completely oblivious of the other vehicles around them: they would change lanes (without using turn signals) and cut people off, often while speaking or texting on their cell phones and/or without their eyes on the road.

This makes me furious, as they are putting the lives of themselves and others in jeopardy. Many people share my feelings about reckless and negligent driving, but I have found that at times my frustration remains after I step out of the car. I glance around and am still noticing what in my estimation is “wrong.”

As a pastor, supervisor, baseball coach, etc it has been part of my job to diagnose situations. As a quarterback and point guard on many recreational football and basketball teams I have had similar responsibilities, and learned to diagnose situations even faster. Now, however, I find myself subconsciously diagnosing situations in which it's neither a responsibility nor a necessity. I can notice anybody doing anything and I'm immediately thinking, whether I mean to or not, “this should (should; not could) be done like this. NOT like they're doing it.”

I wasn't going to write about this today, as we've gone over this topic before, but while on Facebook for a moment this morning I noticed the following post, made by my friend the Rev. Dan Paddock:

“It can be a sin to think of yourself too highly--especially at the expense of another. But sometimes it might be an even greater tragedy to think of your abilities so poorly that you never use them in the service of God or neighbor. There is no worse whisper in the world than the devil's call of can't or don't into the ear of a capable child of God. May we share our gifts whenever and wherever possible in our Love of God and neighbor, Amen.”

It is most definitely a sin to think of ourselves so highly when we unintentionally, unwittingly, but undeniably, are doing so at the expense of another. Most of us are guilty of this on occasion, and I know I am guilty of this all too often.

Instead of building ourselves up, we should – as Dan points out – be sharing our gifts whenever and wherever possible in our love for our neighbors. Maybe if we – and I – did a more thorough job of this we would be much less likely of lauding ourselves and looking down on anyone else. If we ever DO find ourselves thinking that we have so much to offer, we must stop playing the Pharisee and share whatever God has given to us rather than enjoying having it while others don't. In so doing, we will aid in the fight against the greater tragedy to which Dan also referred: “thinking of our abilities so poorly that we never use them in the service of God or neighbor.”

For those of us who believe we have something to actually offer, the time will never end to responsibly share what we have. For all of us who claim to be ministers in any sense of the word, that will always involve helping others to unlock their own gifts. May those of us who are so ready to say, “I can!” do our best to humbly and responsibly come to the aid of our brothers and sisters who so often struggle with, “I can't.”

Kirk of Our Savior Special Congregational Meeting

April 2, 2017

The Session called this meeting on March 12, 2017. The membership was notified of this meeting by announcements made from the pulpit on March 19th and 26th, and via mass emailing the week of March 26th.

There were 45 members present, as well as the Moderator and Clerk of Session.

Pastor Mike opened the meeting with prayer at 11:53 a.m. in the sanctuary. The purpose of this meeting is to place into nomination for the office of Ruling Elder Mark Gallaher, to fill the 2-year vacancy left by Sharon Garcia upon her resignation. At the March 12, 2017, Session meeting, the Nominating Committee endorsed Mark as a candidate for this position. If elected, he will be formally examined by the Session at a special meeting prior to worship on April 9, 2017. If the way be clear, he will be ordained and installed during the regular worship service on that same day.

After presentation of Mark, the Moderator asked if there were any nominations from the floor. Upon hearing none, it was MOVED by Bonnie Hilberer, SECONDED, and CARRIED to close nominations and direct the Clerk to cast one ballot for the slate. It was MOVED by Judy Curtis, SECONDED, and CARRIED to elect Mark Gallaher.

As there was no other business to be brought before the congregation at this time, it was MOVED by Judy Curtis, SECONDED, and CARRIED to adjourn the meeting with prayer by Pastor Mike at 11:55 a.m.

Rev. Michael Beckman, Moderator

Kirk of Our Savior special meeting of the Corporation
April 2, 2017

The President, Judy Curtis, called the meeting to order at 11:55 a.m., stating that the purpose of this meeting is to remove Sharon Garcia from the Board of Trustees and to elect Mark Gallaher to the Board of Trustees.

It was MOVED by David Garcia, SECONDED, and CARRIED to remove Sharon and elect Mark.

It was MOVED by Jenny Root, SECONDED, and CARRIED to adjourn the meeting at 11:56 a.m.

Lynn King

I live in Garden City

I've been a member of the KIRK for 30 years.

I was named for my father's initials L. F.

I love the sound of water at the lake/ocean.

Three things on my bucket list:

1. Learning to knit-just began recently.
2. Travel more
3. Volunteer to help children read

One thing I love about the Kirk is church family friendship.

If my life was a book, the title would be "The Caregiver."

My hobbies and interests are reading and gardening.

One of my favorite quotes: "Faith Family Friends"

I started coming to the KIRK because my mother-in-law invited me to a Christmas Eve service.

I find a lot of joy in gardening and reaping the bounty of vegetables.

My favorite season is September/Fall

What ways have I tried to serve God, the church and others?

To be helpful when I felt the need for anyone.

I knew God was working in my life when God guided me to allow my son to be raised by a father and mother.

What story does your family always tell about you?

I did not begin to talk until the age of 3.

Jenny Root welcomes a new granddaughter into her family. Caroline Marie Hoekstra was born April 3rd. She weighed 8 lbs. 14 oz and was 19 1/2" long.

The Cardinal

The cardinal's brilliance in early spring
Awakens the earth and makes it sing.

His radiance for a brief moment
has trod
And flashed through our lives
speaking silently-GOD.
