

THE KIRK KONNECTION

Editor: Carolyn Marnon

May 2019

He stood there on the beach
But we did not know him yet
He asked if we had fish
But we had none in our net

Then he told us to cast out once more
And we said to ourselves, "Why not?"
Well, we couldn't even haul in that net
Because of all the fish we'd caught

One hundred fifty three there were
And we dragged those fish ashore
In the knowledge that this was Jesus
Our Lord, our guide, our mentor

He beckoned to the fire
And asked us to break bread
Then finally turned to Peter
And this is what he said:

"Simon Peter, do you love me?"
Peter said, "Yes, Lord, I do."
When the Savior asked him two more times
He said, "You know I do."

It was then we all leaned forward
Because now it was so clear
These words were not for Peter
But for all of us to hear

He told us to feed his lambs
And also to tend his sheep
For fishermen these were confusing orders
We were asked to keep

But eventually it dawned on us
We were shepherds after all
And caring for Jesus' flock
Was our mission and our call

And so as you enjoy
A salvation that is free
We pray you come to understand
What Jesus meant by, "Follow me."

SEEKING LOVING HOME

My baby kitten and I are looking for good homes. Carolyn, your church secretary, rescued me from the polar vortex. She saw me shivering at her window every night and allowed me to seek warmth in her basement. When she tried to take me back to my family, my family had been evicted from their home and left me behind! I used to be very scared of others, but once I was in a warm, loving home (even if it was a basement!) and fed every day, I understood I could be very loving. I rub against Carolyn, give kitty kisses and purr. I had babies while in Carolyn's care. Carolyn has taken very good care of them. Several have already found homes. Everybody loves kittens. However, I haven't found a home yet nor has one of my kittens. Can one or both of us come live with you? I am about 3-4 years old. My kitten is almost 6 weeks old. Carolyn can't take care of me and my whole family. Her dog doesn't like me. Please let Carolyn know if you have space in your home for a cat or kitten who will love you unconditionally. Love, Princess

SPRING CLEAN-UP 2019

Yes, it is spring and that means it's time for a spring cleaning here at your church home. Come on over to the Kirk on Saturday, May 11th, starting at 9:00 a.m. and help to make short work of a somewhat long list. What's on that list? Well, let's take a look:

INSIDE - moving tables, chairs, and extra cushions into storage; securing and straightening up the coat racks in the Fellowship Hall; finishing with the trim painting and installing the radiator covers in the women's restroom; fixing up the back stairwell (remember the roof leak?).

OUTSIDE - picking up sticks, leaves, and litter; cleaning out bushes; sealing brickwork; ant abatement; sprucing up all 3 entrances and the outside stairwell; putting on screens; setting up the patio; sprucing up the Memorial Garden; cutting up downed trees and stacking the wood; maintenance on the Peace Pole; flat-roof maintenance.

There is a sign and sign-up sheet in the lounge. Please plan to come, even if for a short time - many hands make for a more successful work day. Lunch, plenty of water, and great company will be provided.

Financial Report as of 3/31/2019

	March	Year to Date	Budget
Income	12,142	34,827	29,255
Expenses	9,071	30,369	30,651

March was a good financial month benefiting from 5 collections, lower than normal expenses, and another strong gain in mutual funds. In addition, we received two monthly rental payments from WCCP. We bolstered the capital funds reserve but also paid a down payment on new railings as well as extensive electrical work in the kitchen and downstairs baths.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR
SUPPORT
