

THE KIRK KONNECTION

Editor: Carolyn Marnon

June 2017

Greetings to all!

Next Sunday we will be celebrating Pentecost, which is often associated with the birth of the Church. In addition to your interest in the Bible, this past year many of you have expressed a desire to learn more about our denomination and our theology (our Book of Order/Book of Confessions group order arrives tomorrow!). Therefore I would like to share some of what the PC USA has to say regarding Pentecost, including a little preview of what you'll find in your Book of Confessions regarding the Holy Spirit.

What is the origin of Pentecost?

"On the Day of Pentecost we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit descending in a mighty rush of wind and flame to inspire the church's proclamation of Christ's rising and to empower its mission and ministry to the world. (See Acts 2:1-13; see also Joel 2:28-32.)

The notion of Easter as a season of 50 days ending at Pentecost is patterned after the ancient Jewish festival of seven weeks that extended from the beginning of the barley harvest (on the second day after the beginning of Passover) to the end of the wheat harvest at the Festival of Weeks or Shavuot (see Deuteronomy 16:9-12). The Festival of Weeks later came to be called Pentecost ("50th day") by Greek speaking Jews. In Jewish tradition, Shavuot also marks the giving of the law to Moses at Sinai; this liturgical link may inform Paul's discussions of the law and the Spirit (see Romans 8, 2 Corinthians 3 and Galatians 3)."

That's a fun bit of history. But just what exactly is this Holy Spirit that descended so dramatically in wind and fire? Fortunately for us, this is articulated throughout our Book of Confessions. The Holy Spirit, one of the three Persons in the Trinity, is described below in "A Brief Statement of Faith," the eleventh document in our Book of Confessions:

"We trust in God the Holy Spirit, everywhere the giver and renewer of life.
The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith, sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor,
and binds us together with all believers
in the one body of Christ, the Church.
The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
claims us in the waters of baptism,
feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
and calls women and men to all ministries of the Church.
In a broken and fearful world
the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,

to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.”

“A Brief Statement of Faith” Book of Confessions

As you can see, the Spirit is quite versatile. This versatility can be found in all of us in the form of our various Christian gifts and abilities. We have a responsibility to make use of these gifts in the aforementioned “broken and fearful world” in which we live. We can pray without ceasing. We can witness. We can unmask idolatries in Church and culture. We can listen to and even speak for those who have been long silenced and we are certainly called to work with others for justice, freedom and peace. The gift of the Spirit and the courage that comes with it makes all of this possible.

You have received the gift. Have you opened it up?

Rob Otte

I was named after my father and my mother's father.

I love the sound of a good rain storm.

I've been a member of the KIRK for only a few months.

One thing I love about the Kirk is that everybody genuinely cares about everyone.

My hobbies include hockey, hunting, and hopefully one day soon, working on classic Mustangs.

If my life was a book, the title would be "Lessons Learned."

The quote I live by is "It is what it is."

I live in Canton

I started coming to the KIRK because it was the closest Presbyterian church while we were looking for a new church. We stayed after the first visit because it felt like home.

I find my true joy in life through my kids.

My favorite season is fall.

I have always preferred to serve God and the church behind the scenes doing whatever needs to be done and by trying to set an example to people of what Christ's forgiveness can do.

The first time I knew God was working in my life was when we were told we could not have anymore children then were blessed with two more in quick order!

April was a strong month financially due to the Easter season combined with five Sunday collections. We also benefited from a larger gas bill credit though we did pay the season snowplowing bill of $1,200.

The mission of the Kirk of Our Savior is to glorify God, nurture new and existing relationships, and bear witness to our faith and divine calling through worship, service, stewardship and prayer.

It is the vision of this church to become a living example of God's love, called to show Christ to those within the church community by offering ourselves in service to those in need and inviting all to share in this vision.
